Hello, and welcome to our October 2019 brochure.

Now temperatures are dropping and the nights are drawing in, it's time to find things to keep you busy on the longer evenings. Flick through these pages and see what we've got planned - you won't be disappointed!

2019 has been a busy year for us, and we're not slowing down just yet. You'll notice that some things have changed - we've been listening to you and improving those areas that need a little extra attention.

By the time you read this we'll have launched our brand-new, all-singing, all-dancing website and Box Office system. We want to make sure that we're using the best and latest technology to make your booking experience as easy as possible. We also want to help you get to know us better, so you'll find lots more information on who we are, what we're doing - and why we're doing it!

October sees the launch of two new schemes: the Marina Card, and Marina Friends. Both have been developed following feedback and conversations with our loyal customers and supporters. Have a look at the opposite page for more details.

We're a small charity with a big building, a big heart, and even bigger ambitions. We're looking at a bright future, and we want to bring you with us.

Emma Butler Smith

Chief Executive

PS. We'd love to hear what you think of our recent changes, please get in touch by emailing feedback@marinatheatre.co.uk

We are proud to be Lowestoft's not-for-profit professional theatre. We present over 500 live, screening and cinema events every single year, and run a programme of education and outreach initiatives working with thousands of people in our community!
Our charity number is 1149133.

NEW Marina Card - start saving today!

After months of planning, we're very excited to share our new Marina Card with you, specially designed after feedback from our Privilege Card holders.

Become a Marina Friend

There have been lots of changes since we set up the Marina Theatre Trust back in 2011. Everything we do is aimed at building a resilient organisation at the heart of our community, looking towards a bright future. Buying tickets for our shows and visiting our cafe has helped to make this possible - thank you!

We've set ambitious goals for the next few years, and we are inviting you to help us achieve them.

With your help, we want to:

- Nurture the aspirations of young people in Lowestoft through inspirational projects, broadening their horizons and opening doors to exciting future careers
- Increase support for older community members, delivering wide-ranging outreach projects and establishing the Marina as a hive of daytime activities
- Expand our live programme, with more drama, musical theatre, real music and comedy
- Develop our building and improve facilities, guaranteeing everyone full access to our activities, regardless of age or ability

By becoming a Marina Friend for only £27.50 a year, you could help to make our goals a reality.

As a thank you, we'll invite you to exclusive social events at the Marina, getting behind the scenes, meeting visiting companies and spending time with other Marina Friends.

Pearls from The Grit by Dean Parkin

In the early 1900s Lowestoft's fishing village - known as The Grit - was home to 2,300 people, schools, churches, shops and 13 pubs. Why did it completely disappear and what made the fishing community so special?

Meet no-nonsense fisherman, Ned; Billy, a larger-than-life skipper during the fishing boom; and Ruby (Billy's daughter), one of the tireless taskforce of women keeping everything afloat.

Mixing true stories, poems, film and song, Lowestoft-born writer Dean Parkin and a professional cast bring the whole story to life in this wonderfully evocative and newly-extended show.

Matthew Bourne's
Romeo and Juliet
On Screen

This passionate and contemporary re-imagining of Shakespeare's classic story is set in the not too distant future in 'The Verona Institute'. Here 'difficult' young people are mysteriously confined by a society that seeks to divide and crush their youthful spirit and individuality.

Bursting with youth, vitality and Matthew Bourne's trademark storytelling, this is a timeless story of forbidden love, repressed emotions and teenage discovery.

New orchestrations of the Prokofiev score, played live by the New Adventures Orchestra conducted by Brett Morris.

Filmed live at Sadler's Wells in London especially for cinemas.

Private Peaceful

"I've had nearly eighteen years of yesterdays and tomorrows, and tonight I must remember as many of them as I can. Tonight, more than any other night of my life, I want to feel alive!"

Private Peaceful relives the life of Private Tommo Peaceful, a young First World War soldier awaiting the firing squad at dawn. During the night, he looks back at his short but joyful past: his exciting first days at school; the accident that killed his father; his adventures with Molly, and the battles of war that brought him to the front line.

The Cinder Path

A Brand New Musical

A sizzling and fast-moving drama, set against the backdrop of the First World War written by legendary author, Catherine Cookson.

In the rolling hills of Northumberland Charlie Macfell becomes an innocent witness to the murder of his cruel and sadistic landowner father. Believing himself to be the only person aware that his childhood friend Arthur Benton is the killer, Charlie tries to set old injustices to rights by protecting his friend from prosecution.

With a talented cast of 15 brilliant actors and singers you will find yourself entranced from beginning to end.

Featuring Nick Cochrane (Coronation Street) as Ginger Slater, this is theatre at its very best filled with laughter, tears and an unforgettable musical score.

Theatre Nation Presents Waiting for Godot

Two Irish tramps meet, and await the arrival of 'Godot'. Whilst they wait they while away the time by quarrelling, making up, contemplating suicide, trying to sleep, eating a carrot and gnawing on some chicken bones.

For his hilarious, poignant and unforgettable play, Beckett created one of the great comedic double acts in modern theatre. Once famously described as "a play in which nothing happens, twice", Theatre Nation bring their customary wit, humour and flair for highly expressive physical theatre to Beckett's masterpiece

Following a successful tour of Hamlet, Theatre Nation are delighted to bring this great classic to the Marina Theatre.

Absurd Person Singular
 by Alan Ayckbourn

Three married couples. Three kitchens. Three Christmas parties.

Sidney Hopcroft, a small-time tradesman, persuades wife Jane to throw a party hoping to find favour with a bank manager and local architect. As celebrations begin, class differences and naked ambition combine to hilarious effect as, one by one, the characters seek refuge in Jane's kitchen.

Over the next two years, the Jacksons and Brewster-Wrights take turns to host festivities. But Sidney's star has begun to rise and roles are increasingly reversed as the cracks in the other couples' marriages begin to show.

Alan Ayckbourn's comic masterpiece of social climbing in 1970s suburbia fuses a potent mix of farce and black comedy.

We present over 500 live, screening & cinema events every single year, and run a varied programme of education and outreach initiatives where we work with thousands of people in our community.

But we can always do more - and with your help, we can.

Every donation (be it of money, or time) really does make a difference, and will help to secure our fantastic organisation for generations to come!

Make a donation:

Add a donation to your basket when buying tickets online or at the Box Office, or make a separate one-off donation at any time. Be sure to make your donation even more valuable, fill in a Gift Aid declaration and you will increase the value by 25%!

Name a seat:

You might want to commemorate a special occasion, pay tribute to a group, surprise someone with a gift, or remember a loved one. Sponsoring a seat will allow you to have a plaque with your name or message fixed to an auditorium seat for as little as £150, and for a minimum of 10 years.

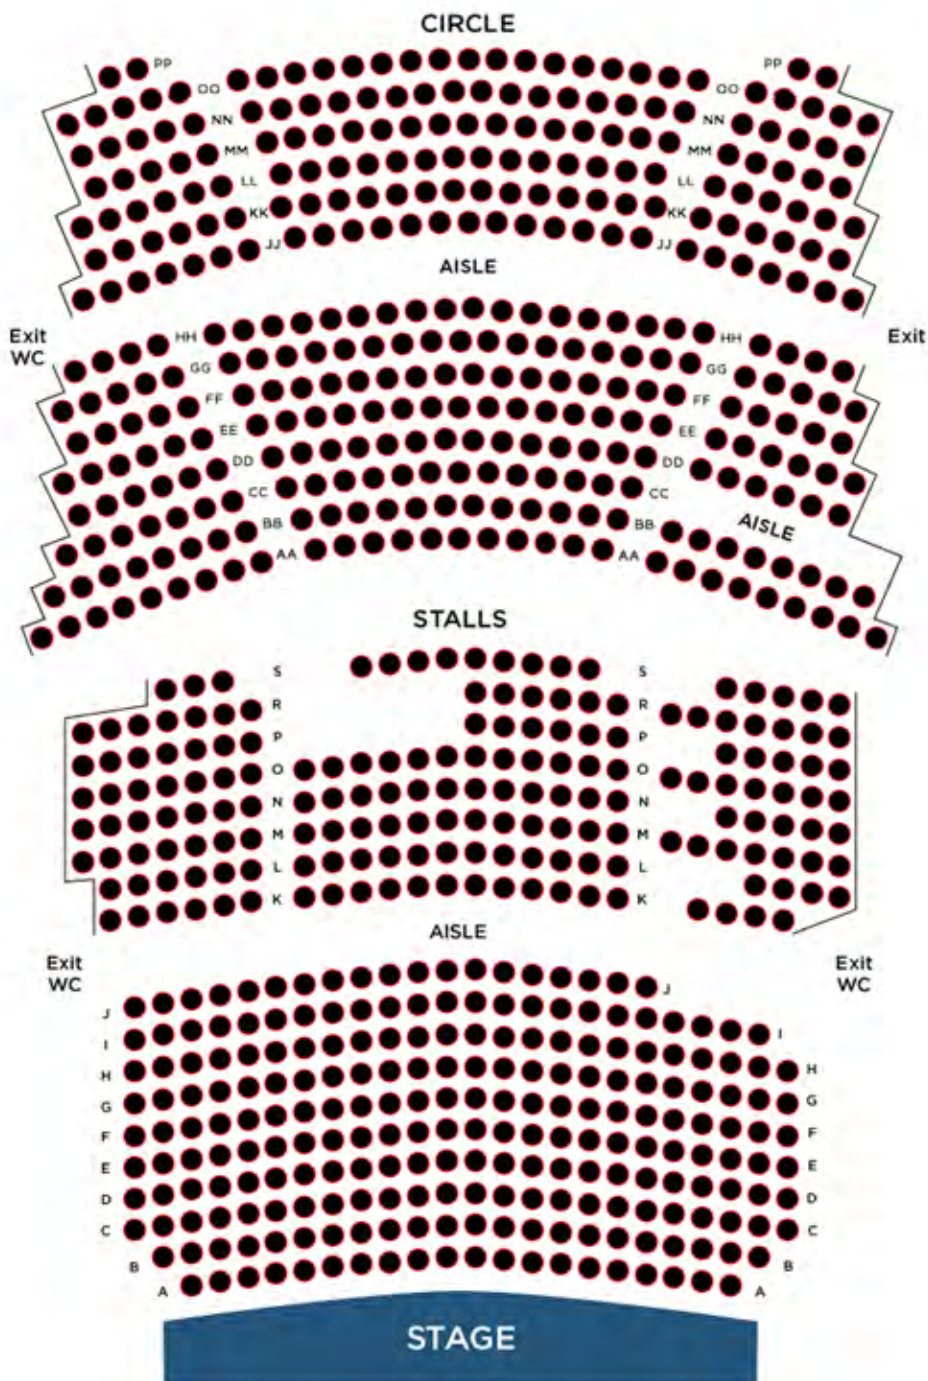

Volunteer:

Last year our wonderful volunteers donated 3,198 hours of their time, so when we say we couldn't do it without them - we mean it! Volunteers make new friends, get to see shows for free, get invited to special events, and become part of our legacy! Contact volunteer@marinatheatre.co.uk for more information.

Lottery:

For just £2 a week you can take part in the Giant Cash Bonanza Lottery. You have the chance to win up to £1,000 every week and up to £10,000 in an annual prize draw. Full details available on our website.

Our seating plan and seat bands are subject to change for certain performances

Booking fees:

An 85p booking fee is applied to all live shows and satellite screenings. It is not applied to cinema tickets.

Booking fees are not applied to schools or groups of over 10 people, or to customers holding a valid Marina Card.

Concessions:

Unless otherwise stated, live show concessions apply to Over 60s, Under 16s, and Equity Members.

Film concession rates apply to Under 25s, Marina Card holders, and Over 60s.

Delivery Policy:

We can post your tickets to you for an additional cost of £1.

Exchanges:

Tickets may be exchanged (up to 10 days before the show) for another performance of the same production, or for a credit note for the value of your ticket minus a £2 admin fee.

Children:

Children under 16 attending a performance or screening must be accompanied by an adult over 18+.

Children under 2 years do not require a ticket if sitting on a lap.

These Terms and Conditions are correct at time of print, but may change without prior notice. Read our full list of Terms and Conditions on our website or at our Box Office.

Access...

We believe that theatre is for everyone.

If you have any concerns, or if you would simply like to talk to a member of staff before visiting us: call us on 01502 533200, email info@marinatheatre.co.uk, send a letter to the address on the back of this brochure, or pop in to have a chat!

Wheelchairs and mobility aids:

We have wheelchair accessible toilets, Box Office, Café, Foyer and Auditorium.

We have 5 wheelchair spaces in the auditorium stalls.

Unfortunately our upper floors remain accessible by stairs only, but we are working hard to source funding to help us install a lift. This is a top priority for us as we look to expand our accessibility throughout our historic building.

Hearing assistance:

We have recently installed a state-of-the-art Sennheiser infrared hearing system.

This system allows sound from the stage to be played back to you through headphones or hearing aids via an easy to use bodypack. We have 10 bodypacks available, but the system is usable with any infrared bodypack capable of receiving the 2.3MHz frequency.

Any headphones with a 3.5mm jack plug can be used with the bodypack. You are welcome to bring your own set, but we do have some available to buy from our Kiosk.

Signed performances:

We do our best to programme signed performances into our schedule. We programme at least one signed Pantomime performance, but hope to do more throughout the year!

Relaxed performances:

These are designed for people who benefit from a relaxed environment, including those with an autism spectrum condition, learning disability, people with dementia, or even just small children.

You can expect subtle changes to the theatre environment such as a lower level of sound and lighting which is not too dark, or too bright! We understand that people may not be able to stay seated for long periods of time and so we offer a breakout area (with activities!) outside the auditorium.

Our relaxed performances are accompanied by a pre-recorded visual tour of our theatre, and a printed guide which includes information about our venue, plus a more detailed description of the show itself.

We offer relaxed pantomime performances every year plus relaxed performances on visiting shows wherever possible.

"It was nice not to feel stressed and worried in case we disturbed anyone. Really impressed by the efforts taken, the staff were exceptionally helpful, the relaxed atmosphere was really welcoming"

Ear defenders:

Ear defenders are available at every Marina performance upon request and subject to availability.
